

Grade Comparability Statements Examples:

The suggested choices of the language for grade comparability:

- The grade students receive in this course as a HS course is the same as they would receive on the transcript from UCONN.
- You may notice that your UCONN grade and high school grade differ. It is possible that two different grades may be awarded for the same course. Your high school grade is determined by your high school. Your UCONN grade is determined by the grading rubric set by the University of Connecticut.
