

UConn ECE SUMMER INSTITUTE COMPUTER SCIENCE

CSE 1010 -

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTING FOR ENGINEERS

In collaboration with the School of Engineering and the Neag School of Education, UConn's Office of Early College Programs is excited to announce a pilot program for CSE 1010 - Introduction to Computing for Engineers. Early College Experience (ECE) partner schools interested in offering CSE 1010 are invited to have potential ECE instructor candidates submit an application for ECE Instructor Certification by January 31st.

CSE 1010 Instructor Qualifications & Requirements can be found here:
<https://ece.uconn.edu/computer-science-and-engineering/>

Qualified applicants will be invited to attend the UConn ECE CSE Summer Institute to complete their CSE 1010 certification process. Please direct all questions to Christopher Todd at christopher.todd@uconn.edu.

24-25
JUNE

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Neag School of Education
Storrs, CT

Additional information regarding the UConn ECE CSE Summer Institute including agenda, programming, registration and fees ($250) will be communicated to qualified applicants upon review and acceptance of application materials.